Old Fashioned…….. Sazerac Rye, muddled orange, and whiskey cured cherry
Old school never goes out of vogue.

The Magic Carpet…… Singani, elderflower and Champagne
Circle the globe from the comfort of your bar stool!

The Third Floor.…… Elephant Gin, elderflower, lemon, tonic water, cranberry Juice, and rose petals
A floral composition to arouse your senses.

Espresso Martini…….. Maker's Mark Wheated Bourbon, Grand Brulot, espresso
Wake up in Bourbon land but keep the dream going.

RESERVE COCKTAILS

Lavender 16 ($31)

The Casa Dragones folks in San Miguel de Allende stirred the Tequila industry when recently offering the most expensive clear-as-glass sipping Tequila. We dare to show this unusual Blanco in a different way: a hint of cream laced with lavender syrup and smoked up by a touch of Mezcal. Dangerously addicting. Full-on Mexico.

Pods-de-Vie ($28)

Chateau de Montifaud VS Cognac is a brilliant innovative spirit showing what's best from French oak. This Cognac Sour blends exotic vanilla notes with Madagascar's Caviar into a perfect combination of the World's Premier eau-de-vie attributes. Heavenly silky texture.

Boulevardier ($27)

Loosely translated, a boulevardier is a man-about-town. This cocktail by the same name is simply a variation on the classic Negroni. This rich and warming cocktail is made with Maker's Mark Bourbon, sweet vermouth, Campari and an orange peel.

Elephantonic ($25)

Elephant Gin, Bergamot Liqueur 'italicus', lime, ginger syrup, tonic water Here is a German gin made to support the cause of African elephants: 15% of profits or 2% of revenue, whichever is higher, is donated to elephant conservation projects. Drink for a cause with this beautiful Sundowner.

Kan-Ro ($38)

Let's toast to the 100 year old Yamazaki distillery! 'Kan-ro' does not just mean 'nectar' or 'honeydew'; it's more like a peaceful state of mind where bitterness has disappeared. This cocktail is composed with Yamazaki Single Malt 12 years as a main ingredient with Pedro Ximénez Sherry (fruity & complex sweetness) and Okinawa Black Sugar (rich & mineral).
